

« L'éphè – Mer et Terre »

A carte blanche menu, a deliberate choice that highlights a region, a terroir, these women and men dedicated to doing wonderful things out of conviction and love, these people who share, exchange, give a lot and inspire me... Their know-how which contributes to perpetuating the tradition and favoring our evolution, a freedom, without taboos, without limits, a more personal vision of the almost visceral cuisine, a common love story between respect and mastery, nature and culture which will reflect our motivations, our moods, our desires, our delusions...
